The people are on the march and must have songs to sing. Now, in 1946, the truth must reassert itself in many singing voices.
There are thousands of unions, people's organizations, singers, and choruses who would gladly use more songs. There are many songwriters, amateur and professional, who are writing these songs.
It is clear that there must be an organization to make and send songs of labor and the American people through the land.
To do this job, we have formed PEOPLE'S SONGS, INC.
We invite you to join us.

Jo Unions
Do you want to publish a songbook for your members? Write us for help in putting one together.
Do you want a song composed especially for your union? Would you like to have phonograph records of your own songs for use in your locals?
These are jobs which we are prepared to do. Activities directors should subscribe to this Bulletin with its regular song supplement.

Jo Songwriters
We are going to print the songs of both amateur and professional songwriters in this Bulletin, which goes to singers, leaders of choruses and to organizations all over the country.
Here is a new way of reaching your audience. Arrangements can be made through us to have your songs printed in sheet music form. You are assured of complete copyright and royalty protection.

Singers, Leaders of Choruses... and performers may become members of PEOPLE'S SONGS, and receive this Bulletin. You will get many new songs you can use, and some of the older ones. If you need lyrics for other songs, we can help you find them.
Recordings are being used more and more in sound trucks, union halls, and wherever people's songs have a job to do. At present the following albums of union songs are available. They should be ordered through your own dealer wherever possible.

ASCH RECORDS (Stinson Trading Co., 27 Union Square, New York City.)

HOW TO COPYRIGHT A SONG –
Every song printed in this bulletin remains the possession of the composer and should be copyrighted by him. Write to the Library of Congress Copyright Office, Washington 25, D.C., and ask for a copy of Form E2. This you must fill out and return with copies of your song and a small fee, for which you'll receive a copyright.

WHAT KIND OF SONGS ARE NEEDED? –
Many kinds, to suit America's varied traditions. Folksongs for some, songs with a solid beat for others, mass songs, performance songs, and cantatas for trained choruses.

Write us and tell us what kind of songs you would like to see printed in the Bulletin.

IN FUTURE ISSUES –
Articles on people's music of other lands, on soldier songs; the democratic heritage of America and the world as reflected in folksongs.

Letters from all 48 states, from our members, telling about the way they use music in their parts of the country.

Reviews of current songs, records and books.

SONGBOOKS
There are a few good up-to-date union songbooks available. PEOPLE'S SONGS will publish one this year. However, there are many books of folksongs and people's songs which have been issued in the past few years. A future Bulletin will list them.

PEOPLE'S SONGS already has, at this date of writing, one of the country's largest collections of folksongs and labor songs, farmer's songs, etc. It will rapidly be added to, not only with songs from this country, but through exchange with foreign countries, with the people's songs of South America and Canada, of Europe, Africa, Asia, Australia. So anyone needing to learn the words of a song they are unable to find in their local library, anyone needing advice in putting a songbook together (for their union, for instance) will be able to get assistance from PEOPLE'S SONGS.
PEOPLE'S SONGS was formed Dec. 31, 1945, at a meeting in New York City of songwriters, singers, union representatives, and workers in allied cultural fields.

Persons present constituted themselves an advisory committee, and elected a temporary organizing committee. Peter Seeger was elected chairman of the organizing committee.

This group was charged with the following tasks: renting an office; getting legal advice on incorporation and business procedure; organizing a songwriters working committee; issuing a first bulletin and song supplement; arranging for exchanges of songs with foreign countries; financing; and getting new members.

Office space has been secured at 130 West 42nd Street, New York, N.Y., through the courtesy of STAGE FOR ACTION, a labor drama group with which PEOPLE'S SONGS hopes to work closely. Incorporation papers have been drawn up and filed, and legal advice obtained.

The songwriters working committee has met. It's first job was to write verses for a song voicing the feelings of soldiers overseas, and copies were sent to protesting GI's in Manila.

This bulletin goes out to 3000 people in all 48 states. Its aim is to be a medium of communication, a forum for criticism, between unions, songwriters, and performers.

SOLIDARITY FOREVER

Words by Ralph Chaplin

Many people have forgotten the verses of this old and great union song. Sing these words slowly, so they can be heard. They are great poetry.

1. When the union's inspiration through the workers blood shall run
   There can be no power greater anywhere beneath the sun
   Yet what force on earth is weaker than the feeble strength of one
   But the union makes us strong.

   Chorus: Solidarity forever!
   Solidarity forever!
   Solidarity forever!
   For the union makes us strong.

2. It is we who plowed the prairies, built the cities where they trade
   Dug the mines and built the workshops, endless miles of railroad laid
   Now we stand, outcast and starving, 'mid the wonders we have made
   But the union makes us strong.

   REPEAT CHORUS

3. They have taken untold millions that they never toiled to earn
   But without our brain and muscle not a single wheel would turn
   We can break their haughty power, gain our freedom when we learn
   That the union makes us strong.

   REPEAT CHORUS

4. In our hands is placed a power greater than their hoarded gold
   Greater than the might of atoms* magnified a thousandfold
   We can bring to birth a new world from the ashes of the old
   For the union makes us strong.

   REPEAT CHORUS

THE RANKIN TREE

Words and music by Lee Hays and Walter Loewenfels

An allegory in song. It should be sung by one singer, with the whole audience repeating each phrase right after him thus: "Well I had a farm...WELL I HAD A FARM...and on that farm...AND ON THAT FARM..." etc. The singer can make the song his own by varying the melody or words to suit himself.

\[\text{Well, I had a farm // and on that farm // there was a tree // and the...}\] name of the tree // it was the Rankin Tree // It grew so big // that it hid the sun // for miles around // poisoned everything // in the ground // It poisoned by potatoes // it poisoned my squash // it mildewed all // of my Monday wash // It killed my horse // killed my pig // In fact that tree // got too damn big // So I got my little axe // and put it on the stone // and I turned the stone // around and around // and whetted the blade // till the edges shone // Then I went to the tree // and one, two three // I chopped it down // and I laid it on the ground // and I chopped it up // for kindling wood // I built me a fire // and the flames went higher // and I said to myself // as I sat by the fire // That's the only time // that Rankin Tree // ever did any good // when I chopped it up // for kindling wood //

This is the end // of my melody // about that terrible // Rankin Tree !

ROLL THE UNION ON

This song, which came out of Commonwealth College, Arkansas, in the early thirties, was made up by farming people who came there to learn about unionism for the first time. It is a great "zipper song". By that we mean that you can put the name of anyone or anything you don't like in the verses, and "roll it over them."

\begin{align*}
& We're goin' to roll, we're goin' to roll, we're goin' to roll the union on. \\
& We're goin' to roll, we're goin' to roll, we're goin' to roll the union on. \\
& If the boss is in the way, we're gonna roll it over him, we're gonna roll it over him, we're gonna roll it over him. \\
& (VERSE) \\
& We're goin' to roll, we're goin' to roll, we're goin' to roll the union on. \\ \end{align*}

WE PITY OUR BOSSES FIVE

We pity our bosses five
We pity our bosses five
A thousand a week is all they get
How can they stay alive?

Another good picketline song, of course, "We shall not be moved." Besides the regular verses such as: Black and White Together," "We are fighting for our Freedom," "....is our leader" any other phrases to fit the occasion can be invented on the spot. Many a fine picketline song has been made by changing the words of a well-known song only slightly, as did some little children who once danced outside a factory gate singing "Scabs in the factory, that won't do" to the tune of "Skip To My Lou, My Darling."

A SONG IS NO GOOD ON A PIECE OF PAPER; SING IT, SEE HOW IT SOUNDS
Many a union chorus will want to include songs that people the world over have sung in their struggles for freedom. This is one of the greatest ones, made up by the men of the 15th International Brigade who fought against Franco in Spain, 1936-8.

VIVA LA QUINCE BRIGADA

Long live the 15th Brigade,
They covered themselves with glory.

1. Luchamos contra los Morros
   RHUMBALA RHUMBALA RHUM-BA-LA
   Luchamos contra los Morros
   RHUMBALA RHUMBALA RHUM-BA-LA
   Mercenarios y fascistas
   AI MANUELA, AI MANUELA!
   Mercenarios y fascistas
   AI MANUELA, AI MANUELA!

   AI MANUELA. Que se a cubierta de gloria, AI MANUELA, AI MANUELA....

2. Luchamos contra los Morros
   RHUMBALA RHUMBALA RHUM-BA-LA
   Luchamos contra los Morros
   RHUMBALA RHUMBALA RHUM-BA-LA
   Mercenarios y fascistas
   AI MANUELA, AI MANUELA!
   Mercenarios y fascistas
   AI MANUELA, AI MANUELA!

   AI MANUELA. Que se a cubierta de gloria, AI MANUELA, AI MANUELA....

TRANSLATION

1. Long live the 15th Brigade,
   They covered themselves with glory.
2. We are fighting against the moors, mercenaries and fascists
3. It is our only desire... to destroy fascism
4. On the Jarama front we have no airplanes, no tanks, no artillery.
5. Now we are leaving Spain, but we will fight on other fronts.

For Spanish pronunciation: Roll your R’s, J sounds like H, E like AX, U like OO, A like AH, AI like I in ’kite’, C when followed by an i or an e is like TH (soft).

6

This is the union version which was made up 25 years ago by Joe Hill, and was one of the most popular of his songs.

The workers on the S.P. line for strike sent out a call.
But Casey Jones, the engineer, he wouldn't strike at all
His boiler, it was leaking, and the drivers on the bum
And the engines and the bearings, they were all out of plumb.

Casey Jones, kept his junkpile running
Casey Jones, was working double time
Casey Jones, got a wooden medal
For being good and faithful on the S.P. Line.
The workers said to Casey, "Won't you help us win this strike?"
But Casey said, "Let me alone, you'd better take a hike."
Well, Casey's wheezy engine ran right off the wheezy track
And Casey hit the river with an awful whack.
Casey Jones, hit the river bottom,
Casey Jones, broke his blooming spine.
Casey Jones, became an angelino.
He took a trip to heaven on the S.P. Line.
When Casey got to heaven, way up to the pearly gate
He said, I'm Casey Jones, the guy that pulled the S.P. freight.
You're just the man, said Peter. Our musicians are on strike.
You can get a job a-scabbing any time you like.
Casey Jones, got a job in heaven.
Casey Jones, was doing mighty fine.
Casey Jones, went scabbing on the angels
Just like he did to workers on the S.P. Line.
The Angels got together and they said it wasn't fair
For Casey Jones to go around a-scabbing everywhere.
The angels union, Number 23, they sure were there
And they promptly fired Casey down the golden stair.
Casey Jones, went to Hell a-flying
Casey Jones, the Devil said, Oh, fine.
Casey Jones, get busy shovelling sulphur.
That's what you get for scabbing on the S.P. Line.

I'M A-LOOKING FOR A HOME

This 1946 version of the old song, "The Boll Weevil" was originally made up by "The Priority Ramblers", union singers of Washington, D.C. The first and last verses were added by Bernie Bell, just discharged from the army. You can change around the words to make it fit your own home town.

Copyright 1946.

CHORUS

Four long years in the army, it never was a home. Take me back to N.Y. town & nevermore I'll roam, I'm a-looking for a home, I'm a-looking for a home.

2. My first day in N.Y. town
I spent looking for a bed
Searching all the avenues
For a place to lay my head.
(Chorus after each verse.)

3. One lady said she had a room
I said, "Is that correct?"
"You can have it on one condition"
"That the dog does not object."

4. I answered an advertisement
I went down in a crowd
The Landlady, she made a speech
"No dogs, no cats, no kids,
No chickens, no workingmen allowed."

5. The first time I saw my bedroom
It had just a bed and chair
The next time I saw my bedroom
There were five guys sleeping there.

6. I left my room for a minute
Just to get a glass of beer
When I got back there were 4 more men
Swinging on the chandelier.

7. If you should see anybody
Come round here looking for me
I spend my days in Central Park
And my nights on the I.R.T.
